Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion

Holy Week begins today.

During this week, the dramatic story of Jesus' death and resurrection is linked with the human stories of those preparing for Baptism in our parishes.

At today's liturgy we'll listen to the proclamation of the passion and death of Jesus from the Gospel of Mark. Mark gives us a portrait of one who is truly a "Suffering Servant," first described in the Hebrew Scriptures by Isaiah—whose Servant poems we hear throughout the week, beginning today. In Mark's Gospel, the Lord spends himself in service to others. The cross he embraces is a powerful sign of his self-giving.

But the story is not only the story of Jesus, as Scripture scholar Eugene LaVerdiere reminds us. It's also a story about the testing of Jesus' disciples. Earlier in the Gospel, Jesus asked two of them if they could drink from the cup he would drink, and endure the baptism he would receive. In the Passion account, Judas, Peter and finally the rest of the Twelve, fail the test and abandon Jesus.

The Lent just past has invited us to renew our baptismal commitment. The liturgy a week from today will celebrate our rebirth to new life through the Lord's passion, death and resurrection. Let us resolve to enter the story with him today. How will we meet the test?

The Sunday after Easter is Divine Mercy Sunday!

Divine Mercy Sunday is a very special Sunday when the Divine Floodgates from Heaven are wide-opened and Jesus offers us the total forgiveness of all sins and punishment to any soul, who goes to Confession and receives Him in Holy Communion, on that day

The message of The Divine Mercy is simple. It is that God loves us – all of us. And, he wants us to recognize that His mercy is greater than our sins, so that we will call upon Him with trust, receive His mercy, and let it flow through us to others. Thus, all will come to share His joy.

See our web-site for a Divine Mercy Novena!

Good Friday Prayer Vigil: April 14, 2017 from 8:00AM to 12:00 Noon at the Charleston Women's Medical Center, 1312 Ashley River Rd. (Hwy. 61 and Fuseler St.) You are invited (Rain or Shine: Bring umbrella) to join in solemn prayer on Good Friday at Charleston Women's Medical Center where approximately 2000 abortions (up to 16 weeks gestation) are done each year. Local pastors will lead in scripture and prayer as we meditate on our redemption won by Christ.

We refrain on this solemn day of our Lord's death from using signs that would connote a picket or demonstration to the public. Instead, a life--sized cross will be our only sign as we carry the cross of abortion, keeping the prayerful focus of the day on the cross of Christ. Prayers will be offered for all victims of abortion as well as for those responsible for perpetuating this injustice, from "pro-choice" elected officials to those working in the abortion industry.

Questions: call Cheryle at 843-696-0604

Please do Not Park in Carriage Lane Office lot! Parking available along Fuseler St. or on Ashley River Rd.

#SockIt2PP: Be the voice for a voiceless victim of America's largest abortion chain and motivate Congress to #SockIt2PP. Planned Parenthood aborted 323,999 children in the last year, while raking in more than half a billion taxpayer dollars. Enough is enough! Let's send 323,999 baby socks to Congress Congressional representatives through May 30 — representing these voiceless victims of Planned Parenthood and calling upon our elected officials to defund the abortion Goliath.

Grab a pair of clean baby socks, and take three simple steps to deliver a message no politician can ignore. If you are interested in participating please contact the Office of Family Life at familylife@catholic-doc.org.
