

Why schedule a Mass Intention?

Masses offered for us during our life can help us obtain the great grace of a happy and holy death. The most beautiful gift one can give to another person is a Spiritual Bouquet of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. No material gift can ever compare to or equal the Infinite Value of the Holy Mass.

Masses may be offered in reparation for the outrages, offenses and blasphemies against Christ in the Holy Eucharist, and insults to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. Masses may be offered in thanksgiving for our blessings, family, health and answer to prayers is very pleasing to the Most Blessed Trinity. Masses for our departed loved ones and all the Holy Souls in Purgatory is a great act of charity, efficacious and meritorious.

If you would like to schedule a Mass Intention for someone or yourself, please contact the Parish Office.

"I kept on digging the hole deeper and deeper looking for the treasure chest until I finally lifted my head, looked up and realized that I had dug my own grave."

Mass Schedule

Effective Sunday, July 2, Mass will begin at 9:00 a.m. to give Father West, our new pastor, adequate time to visit with parishioners after Mass and to travel to Saint Clare of Assisi on Daniel Island for their 11:30 a.m. Mass.

Also, we are very happy to welcome back the Corpus Christi Catholic Community under the pastoral leadership of Father Patrick Allen. Their Mass will begin at 11:00 a.m.

We will now have two Sunday morning Masses: 9:00 and 11:00 a.m. Whether you are a member of Saint Mary or Corpus Christi, you are welcomed and encouraged to attend either Mass while retaining membership in your respective parish. Both Masses fulfill one's Sunday obligation.

Dear Parishioners,

In 2020, the Diocese of Charleston will be marking its 200th anniversary. This is an exciting time for our Church! We have a remarkable history and a future full of possibilities to celebrate.

In preparation for the Bicentennial, Bishop Guglielmone is inviting parishioners throughout the diocese to take a brief survey. Through it, he hopes to better understand what is valued most regarding the ministry of the Church, what areas are of greatest concern, and what the hopes and expectations are of our diocesan family as we move into the future as one, united Church.

Please take 5 minutes to complete the survey. It presents us all with a voice and an opportunity to help shape our shared future - a future that belongs to all of us.

Please watch Bishop Guglielmone's Pentecost message here:

Thank you for taking the time to participate at this exciting moment in our Church history. May the Lord continue to bless our parish and the Diocese of Charleston.

St. Mary's Parish News

Today's Mass is being said for the Intentions of Kevin O' Riordan

Can You Count? We Need You! New groups are being formed now of volunteers to count the Sunday Collection. Counting begins at 9:00AM every Monday (except holidays) in the St. Mary's Office. Teams will rotate with each team counting once or twice a month depending on the number of counters. It is an easy way to take an active role in your parish. Each volunteer must complete the Safe Haven Program (online) and have a Background Screening at no cost to you. Please call the office if you have any questions, 843-329-3237.

Please help the Seafarers' Ministry by donating old magazines and books. Bring your donations to the parish hall or call or text Deacon Paul at (843) 822-3572 for pickup. Time, Readers Digest, and National Geographic are the most popular, but all types of general interest magazines are needed. Paperback and hardcover books are also needed. Mysteries, action, historical fiction, and spy novels are the favorites of the seafarers. We are also interested in any donations of prayer cards, rosaries, religious medals, or other religious items that you would like to give so that we can pass them on. Thank you for all of your past and continued support. Our Lady, Stella Maris, pray for us.

St. Vincent De Paul
will be collecting after Mass
TODAY!

The St. Vincent de Paul Society is dedicated to helping the less fortunate in our society with food and help with bills if there is a proven need. We do not enable. There is a constant need for help. Donations may be mailed to the Cathedral Office at 120 Broad St. Charleston SC 29401. Make your checks payable to St. Vincent de Paul. A gift to St. Vincent de Paul in memory of a loved one is special. The demand always surpasses the funds collected. God bless you for your generosity.
