We welcome all visitors to St. Mary of the Annunciation Catholic Church. St. Mary's is the oldest Catholic Church in the Carolinas and Georgia, and is the spiritual home of a vibrant parish community. As an historical church, we are grateful for any donation that you would be willing to give. Visitor envelopes may be found in the pews for your use. Thank you for visiting us and we hope you will come back again on your next trip to Charleston.

Welcome to Fr. John Bosco Ikemeh, O.P., who has generously offered to help Monsignor Brovey with the weekend Masses. Monsignor is now responsible for all weekend Masses: Saturday, 5:30PM, Sunday, 9:00AM, 9:30AM, 11:15AM and 6:00PM. Fr. John Bosco's offer to celebrate the 9:30AM Mass is a much needed blessing for St. Mary's Parish. He is currently serving as the Catholic Chaplain at MUSC and is a supply priest for the Diocese.

New Parish Directory to be Published!! Do you wonder about the names of the people around you at Mass but too often forget after being introduced?

A new directory will be published to help us get to know our church community even better.

Photos can be taken with your smart phone and sent to us. Alternately, John Torres has kindly offered to take a photo during the social hour. You will see him with a camera. Submissions are needed by 15 September.

We ask for your name as you want it in the directory and area of town where you live, i.e. Downtown, West Ashley, Mt. Pleasant, etc. Optional will be address, phone number and e-mail but we are hoping that you will add these.

We will use a church directory desktop publisher and have the directory printed locally with the kind financial help of the Holy Name Society. There will be a small surcharge when you pick up your directory to defray costs.

Please help us get to know each other!!

Send to Bonnie Hartnett or Jody Griffin at stmaryhasellstdirectory@gmail.com.

Jubilee Year of Mercy

The Diocese of Charleston will highlight a work of mercy each month during the Year of Mercy.

July: Feed the Hungry; Give Drink to the Thirsty

There are many people in this world who go without food or do not have access to clean water and suffer from the lack of these basic necessities. When so much of our food and water goes to waste, consider how good stewardship practices of your own can benefit others who do not have those same resources.

- Having delicious food at Thanksgiving or Christmas dinner? Donate to a Thanksgiving or Christmas food drive so everyone can have something to eat.
- Research, identify and contribute financially to organizations that serve the hungry.
- The next time you make a recipe that can be easily frozen, make a double batch and donate one to your local food pantry or soup kitchen.
- Try not to purchase more food than you are able to eat. If you notice that you end up throwing groceries away each week, purchasing less groceries would eliminate waste and allow you to donate the savings to those in need.
- We take it for granted that we have access to clean water. Donate. . . to help build wells for water for those in need
- Organize a youth, sports or young adult groups. Invite them to collect bottled water to distribute at a shelter for families.
- Make an effort not to waste water.

Be you therefore merciful, as your Father also is merciful.
